RIOT AT CLEVELAND.

Small Boys Throwing Stones Cause the Trouble.

UNION AND NON-UNION MEN IN IT.

The Disagreement at the Lumber Docks Not Yet Settled—Non-Union Men Compelled to Quit Work—The Forces of Deputies Being Increased in the Coke Region—Superintendent Gray Held for the Killing of Striker John Mahan.

CLEVELAND, Ohio. May 5.—The trouble in the lumber docks has broken out afresh. An encounter between union and non-union lumber shovers took place Tuesday morning at N. Mills & Co.'s dock. The non-union men went to work about 7 o'clock without police protection, and were soon surrounded by a crowd of union men who told them that if they did not quit work they would be made to quit. The men were working in the hend of the lumber barge Leader and all came out but one colored workman, who was finally persuaded at the point of a revolver.

One Man Badly Hurt.

While the excitement was at its hight some small boys on the edge of the crowd began throwing stones, and this set both union and non-union men on edge, and, each blaming the other for the stone-throwing, the fighting began. The union cohorts being the larger, soon put the other lumber shovers to flight, and in the melee, George Ruda, a non-union worker, was knocked senseless with a brick. He was carried into an adjoining blacksmith shop and finally came to. He bled profusely, and an ambulance being sent for, he was taken to the Huron Street hospital. Another man was badly hurt, but his name could not be learned before his friends had dragged him off to a place of safety. The mill carpenters have also struck, out of sympathy for the lumber shovers.

IN THE COKE REGION.

Italian Workmen Quit Work and Leave the Locality—Mahan's Funeral.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., May 5.—John Mahan, the striker killed at Leisenring Sunday evening, will be buried Wednesday. His funeral will be made the occasion for a general massing of strikers. The forces of deputies are being largely increased at several points, particularly at Leisenring No. 3. Seventy Italian workmen quit at Whitneys Monday night, and left the region. Two car loads of foreign workmen arrived at Morewood and more are expected. The sheriff's posse is at Bradford continuing the work of evicting the families of strikers.

Superintendent Gray Held.

Tuesday morning twenty-five Hungarian workmen who were taken to Leisenring No. 3 Monday night refused to go to work and left the region. Superintendent Gray, Yard Boss Agnew and Deputy Callahan, charged with the murder of Striker John Mahan, had a hearing Tuesday. Superintendent Gray was held in $4,000. Callahan and Agnew were discharged.

The Housesmiths' Strike.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The housesmiths' strike situation is unchanged. Many of the striking framers have gone to work with non-union men in German shops. The bosses who yielded are Americans and employ only 300 men, while the German bosses employ over 1,200. Nothing new has occurred in the lathers', plasterers' or lumber handlers' strikes.

Carpenters on Strike.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 5.—All the carpenters of this city are out on strike for nine hours a day at old wages.

ONE MAYOR TOO MANY.

That Is What Is Troubling Jacksonville, Ills., Just Now.

JACKSONVILLE, Ills., May 5.—This city is just now enjoying the distinction of having two mayors, who at the same time are unable to transact municipal business. April 21 Thomas Knoles (Dem.) was elected mayor, but the outgoing council and mayor refused to approve the new mayor's bond. Mayor Knoles has endeavored to have a meeting of the council, but none of the Republicans have responded to the call. Monday he took possession of the office, safes, records, etc., but the ex-clerk still has possession of the keys. At a meeting of the board of education Monday night, of which the mayor is presiding officer, it was resolved to pay no money unless warrants were signed by Mr. Knoles. The board is Democratic.

The Priest Would Not Prosecute.

CHICAGO, May 5.—The Rev. Father D. D. Hishen practiced the precepts he teaches when he absolutely refused to prosecute Bob Ferguson for the latter's assault on him Sunday evening. The pugilist was arraigned before Justice Hennessy Tuesday at the Forty-eighth Street police court at 9 o'clock, but there was no one present to prosecute, and the case was postponed until 10. Then the court was informed of the priest's resolution to return good for evil, and reluctantly discharged Ferguson for want of prosecution.

Machine Works Destroyed.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 5.—The Albuquerque Foundry and Machine works were totally destroyed by fire. The fire originated in the boiler room and was no doubt the work of an incendiary. This foundry, which was the largest in the southwest, was started ten years ago by William Smith, now of Denver. The loss is not stated, but will probably reach $200,000.

Three Men Probably Drowned.

DETROIT, Mich., May 5.—Three young men, sons of George Sontag, John E. Manning and John Ranspach, hired a boat in Delray, promising to return it in a short time. Monday morning the boat was found bottom up some distance from the shore. It is feared that they have been drowned.

Robbed by Masked Men.

HAMILTON, Ills., May 5.—Two masked men robbed Capt. Tom Hill, a citizen of Warsaw, while driving from that city with his wife to Keokuk, Iowa. They secured a large sum of money. The robbery was committed in the timber. There is no clew to the robbers.

Costly Blaze at Albany, N. Y.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 5.—The entire building of the Troy Steel and Iron company was destroyed by fire Monday night. Seven Dickson high power engines were ruined. Loss estimated at [illegible].

TELEPHONE GIRLS MAD.

Those at Detroit Must Give Up Chewing Gum While on Duty.

DETROIT, Mich., May 5.—The girls in the Central telephone exchange are in a frame of mind over the new rules of the company which prohibit the chewing of gum during working hours, interdict flirtations conversation over the wires, and require them to say "number," instead of "Hello." The day girls, who get $16 per month, are willing to strike, but they are not organized, and fear their chances of success would be very small. The night girls, who get $20 per month, have more time to themselves, but, owing to the nature of their work, can not talk up the matter of striking during working hours, and neither set will trust the other to organize a union. The girls are mad, however, and have been muttering over the new rules ever since they went into effect last Friday. Life without the soul-satisfying chewing gum is a bore.

Exciting Election at Leadville, Colo.

LEADVILLE, Colo., May 5.—One of the most exciting school election contests that ever occurred in this state took place here Monday. The Patriotic Order Sons of America and the Catholics took opposite sides in the fight. The lucky candidate is not yet known. Hundreds of ladies were at the polls and the excitement was intense. The floor in the main building sank six inches and quite a panic occurred, but luckily no one was badly injured. The only serious trouble occurred in the Adelaide district just before the polls closed. John Burns, a deputy sheriff, had some trouble with a man named Ragland. He was about to arrest him, when Ragland fired twice, instantly killing Burns.

Influenza in Europe.

LONDON, May 5.—In Sheffield the influenza epidemic continues unabated. Nottingham has also been attacked by the disease and numerous deaths are reported. The government "whip," Mr. Sidney Herbert, is ill with the malady. Right Hon. and Most Rev. William Connor Magee, D. D., archbishop of York and primate of England, who has for some time past been ill with influenza, died Tuesday. Dr. Magee succeeded to the archbishopric of York in January of the present year. His predecessor was the Most Rev. William Thomson, D. D.

Commercial Telegraph Line.

CHICAGO, May 5.—D. E. Richardson, chairman of the telegraph committee of the Board of Trade, has received a proposition from a reliable construction company to build a four-wire line to New York for considerably less than $500,000. The route would be through Detroit, Toledo, Buffalo, and Rochester. The line would be owned and operated by members of the New York and Chicago exchanges. It would do all kinds of commercial business, but would pay especial attention to business for the exchanges.

Fatally Shot His Partner.

BUTTE, Mont., May 5.—Joe Richards and Dick Combs, partners in a saloon at Centreville, had a dispute about changing "shifts." The dispute waxed warm when Combs struck at Richards. The latter seized a pistol and threatened to fire if Combs made another pass at him. Combs made another rush at Richards and the latter fired at close range, the ball passing through Combs' body from right to left, entering below the lower rib and perforating the liver. The wound is fatal.

Liquor Galore at Haverhill, Mass.

HAVERHILL, Mass., May 5.—Every cell in the police station was occupied Monday night as a result of the first evening of the liquor license. Several fights occurred, and two men had their heads split open. The streets were filled with drunken men and the police had all they could attend to. A well-known business man while under the influence of liquor attempted suicide by taking paris green, but his life was saved by the prompt assistance of the doctors.

Mad Dog in Church.

DETROIT, May 5.—The pastor of the Fort Street Congregational church was just beginning prayer when a vicious-looking dog, which was frothing at the mouth, trotted into the doorway and down the center aisle, snarling and snapping right and left. Everybody was badly frightened and two women fainted. One of the ushers, Judson Tunnison, seized a chair and dealt the cur a blow which stunned him. He was then dragged outside and killed.

An Unknown Vessel Burns at Sea.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The German bark Charles Huling, Capt. Wieke, arrived in port late Sunday evening. The captain states that on April 10 he sighted a vessel on fire. He steered for the scene, and rounded to near the blazing wreck. A boat was sent to the vessel, but there was not a living thing on board. No name could be seen on the stern or bow. The vessel was burned almost to the water's edge, and could not be identified.

Baby Born in a Theatre.

DAYTON, Ohio, May 5.—During a performance at the Park theatre Monday night Mrs. Thomas Griffith, who was in the audience with her husband, gave birth to a girl baby, and it is believed this is the first case on record of a child being born in a theatre. Only a portion of the audience knew what was going on, but considerable excitement ensued. The city ambulance was called to take the mother and babe to their home.

His Mother Was an Apple Woman.

CHICAGO, May 5.—Henry Pierce, of the clothing firm of Hartwell, Mekeel & Co., New York, stopped at an old woman's apple stand in the Union station, Monday, to buy an apple, and discovered that the woman was his mother, whom he had not seen for seventeen years. He ran away from his parents, in Jackson, Mich., in 1874. He immediately made his mother comfortable, and took her with him to St. Paul.

Will March Whether or No.

BOSTON, May 5.—The Boston Central Labor union has decided that it would march in a body to Franklin park July 4 and hold a mass meeting in the interests of labor whether the city authorities allow them to do so or not. This is the most radical step the Boston organization has ever taken.

Moonshiners Captured.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 5.—United States officers captured Marion Jackson and Sam Pools, two leaders of a gang of moonshiners, with five confederates. A sharp conflict was had and several shots were exchanged. Two large distilleries were discovered and destroyed.

FATHER IGNATIUS' CRUSADE.

Matters That Are Troubling New York City Episcopalians.

R. HEBER NEWTON.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Rev. Heber Newton, an Episcopal clergyman of New York city, is a "broad" churchman. Indeed he is so "broad" that among conservative churchmen, not necessarily "high," it has been a wonder that he has not got into trouble with his ecclesiastical superior. He is so "broad" in some things that it is hard to draw the line of difference between him and Ingersoll His latest declarations are easily interpretable as a repudiation of the Episcopal doctrine of the "resurrection of the body." He appears to be a long way in the same road as that which Dr. McQueary is traveling; only thot in the "low" church diocese of Ohio Dr. McQueary was suspended for his teachings, while in the "high" church diocese of New York Dr. Newton is tolerated

A Nemesis for the Doctor.

Little was said, however, about Dr. Newton's ideas in this city by anybody—that is, little loud enough to be heard—except the newspapers, who rather commended his "liberality," until the advent of Father Ignatius, a Church of England "monk," in this city some time ago. It may be stated in passing that the brotherhood of which Rev. Ignatius was a member in Great Britain has recently gone over in a body to Rome. The father himself, however, declares that nothing is farther from his intention, and that he is a loyal son of the Episcopal church. He heard of Rev. Newton's doctrines as reported in the newspapers, and has since then waged a war against Newton, insisting that he shall retract, or that Bishop Potter shall see that he goes out of the church.

Extraordinary Meeting.

The most extraordinary meeting of this crusade against "breadth" of religious view was held at Chickering hall Sunday night. Rev. Ignatius declares the sentiments expressed by Dr. Newton to be a "bold repudiation of the Christian religion." There was an immense audience, clergymen of all denominations being present, a large proportion being Episcopalians. Dr. DeCosta, the only Episcopal clergyman who has publicly joined the crusade of Ignatius, was on the stand with the father. Ignatius in ringing sentences, called upon all who were on the Lord's side to join him on the platform or rise to their feet, and several clergymen immediately sprang to their feet and joined him.

Stirred Up the Audience.

The audience, however, hesitating to take sides, did not respond so quickly, when Ignatius loudly cried that he construed their remaining seated as a denial of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. This had the desired effect, and everybody rose. Father Ignatius was decidedly ill, but he spoke with warmth and earnestness. After he retired to his hotel he was entirely prostrated. In his sermon Sunday Rev. Newton said that charity was greater than faith—interpreting charity as toleration. Faith had led to many sad acts of fanaticism. Rev. Dr. Rainsford, another Episcopal clergyman who is very broad, and has been criticised by Father Ignatus, warned those during his sermon yesterday who charged him with violating his church's rules that there was a law of libel. Religious circles here have been stirred up considerably of late, and the trouble seems to be rapidly approaching a climax.

AUTOYSY ON REV. BOTHWELL.

Effect on a Bronchus of Inhaling a Cork.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 5.—Dr. Rushmore performed an autopsy on the Rev. Dr. George W. Bothwell Monday. He found that the minister had died of suppurated bronchial pneumonia caused by the closure of the middle division of the left bronchus. The cork was found, lying in the lower bifurcation of the left bronchus with the wide end up. The cork was half an inch in diameter and seven-eighths of an inch long. The lower end of the cork was broken one quarter of its circumference where the corkscrew went in and failed to hold. The upper end of the cork was also broken, probably before he swallowed it. The lining membrane of the bronchus was found to be all decomposed. Below the lower end of the cork the membrane was very much congested.

Another Similar Case.

BOSTON, May 5.—A case in many respects similar to that of the Rev. Dr. Bothwell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is being treated at the Massachusetts General hospital in this city. The patient is Oscar Nille, aged 9 years, and the physicians are trying to extract a tamarind seed that the boy inhaled while at play last Saturday. The seed is located in the left lung. Tracheotomy has been performed without success.

New Capital Offense.

DENVER, Colo., May 5.—At 10 o'clock Saturday night the police were summoned hastily to West Denver, where a mob was in the act of lynching a Chinaman named Wing Lee. The neighborhood has been unhealthy of late, and an examination was made of the cellars occupied by several Celestials. The filth and stench was frightful, and this so enraged the people that they procured a rope, and but for the arrival of the patrol wagon would have hanged the Chinaman.

On Trial for Killing Dr. Baird.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 5.—The trial of Dr. George I. Garrison, who was arraigned for the murder of Dr. George Baird, began yesterday. Dr. Baird was one of the leading physicians of this city, and was at one time mayor. Dr. Garrison was president of the state board of health. A feud had existed between the two men for several months. They met on the street on March 9 and after exchanging a few words Dr. Baird was shot and killed.

Refused to Resign.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.—Manager Sharsig, of the Athletics, was informed after Saturday's game that the board of directors had decided to ask for his resignation. Mr. Sharsig was much surprised, but positively refused to resign, whereupon he was informed that he would no longer be regarded as an employ of the club. Mr. Sharsig says he will insist on the fulfillment of his contract. It is understood that Sharsig will be succeeded by Powers, of Buffalo.

PARNELL STUMPING IRELAND.

He Delivers a Speech to a Large Crowd at Kildare.

DUBLIN, May 5.—Parnell has apparently decided to let the land purchase bill take its course in the house of commons and has resumed his stumping tour of Ireland. He commenced with Kildare, one of the Leinster counties, which are solid for him. Arriving in Dublin Monday morning, he proceeded to Newbridge, near the famous curragh of Kildare, where a large crowd had gathered to do him honor. Among them were a large number of clergymen Twenty-three addresses were presented to Parnell, who, in the course of his speech, said the policy of the Irish now seemed to be to accept anything they could get from any English party, and therefore they would accept the land purchase bill.

Letter from James Leahy.

He was prepared, he added, to give the whole of the Paris fund to aid the evicted tenants, but he did not recede from his original proposition of having it distributed by a committee of one from each side. A letter was read to the meeting from James Leahy, member of parliament from South Kildare, in which that gentleman indignantly denied that he had any intention, as had been alleged, of deserting Parnell and going over to the McCarthy faction. Thomas Quinn, the new McCarthyite proselyte, is a London contractor who was recently declared a bankrupt.

Speech by Emperor William.

DUSSELDORF, May 5.—At a banquet in his honor Monday evening Emperor William made a significant speech, in which, after dilating upon his desire for peace and for the protection of the rights of labor, and after expressing satisfaction at the conclusion of the commercial treaty with Austria, he said: "As to the home policy which is becoming established I shall not deviate a hair's breadth from the course I have adopted. I alone am master in this country, and nobody else." This emphatic language in regard to the treaty with Austria, which Prince Bismarck opposes, and also in regard to home affairs, was evidently directed at Prince Bismarck.

The Bishop Bowman Troubles.

EASTON, Pa., May 5.—Judge Schuyler has handed down the first legal opinion in this state upon the Bishop Bowman troubles. It was in the suit of the anti-Bowmanites to oust Rev. Mr. Wieand from the Bangor church to which he had been appointed by the Bowman conference. The judge finds that Bishop Bowman's trial was regular and the Chicago conference found him guilty and suspended him. He then goes on to show that the Bowman conference was composed of seceders and that its appointees were illegal. The opinion closes with an order on Rev. Mr. Wieand to vacate the parsonage within twenty days.

Children Burned to Death.

BALTIMORE, May 5.—The five children of James Cole, a farmer, who were left alone by their parents, were burned to death in a fire which destroyrd the house.

EL PASO, Tex., May 5.—Benita Stevens, the 5-year-old daughter of Mrs. Annie Stevens, found a box of matches in the kitchen and began lighting them. Her dress caught fire and she was fatally burned.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 5.—Mrs. Barron's residence at Diligent River was burned and one of her children perished in the flames. Two other children were rescued with great difficulty.

Threatened with a Catastrophe.

PANAMA, May 5.—In Bogota, Colombia, the Monserrate and Guadaloupe hills threaten to slide on the city and citizens are alarmed. The municipality has appointed a committee to consult with the minister of public works and other officials and to agree as to the measures to be adopted in order to avert the catastrophe which threatens the city. The engineer of the Girard railroad has made a report which shows that the city is in immediate danger, as already some houses have been damaged and the center of the city is undermined by water.

Baron Hirsch and the Jews.

LONDON, May 5.—The Graphic, on the authority of Baron Hirsch, denies that that gentleman has bought land in Pennsylvania for use in the establishing of a Jewish colony. The Graphic adds that the scheme to devote £3,000,000 to assist Jewish immigration is yet in embryo. Baron Hirsch is at present only assisting in sending Jews to the Argentine Republic, although he is looking to other available colonies in South America for a large scheme of emigration, the details of which have not yet been considered.

Disgrace Caused Her Suicide.

CHEYENNE, Wy., May 5.—Miss Dora Adair, a young girl of 18 years, committed suicide in this city Sunday night. Miss Adair ran away from home a short time ago, and was found in Denver living with a man to whom she claimed to have been married. She could show no proofs of this, however, and was taken back home, and it is supposed that she took poison rather than face her former companions.

Death of a Standard Oil Magnate.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Charles Pratt, the well-known oil magnate, and vice president of the Standard Oil Co., died suddenly at 7 o'clock Monday evening at the company's office at No. 26 Broadway. He had left his home in the morning in his usual health, but was taken ill with indigestion at 4 p. m., and died suddenly three hours later of heart failure. He was 61 years old.

Bread Riot at Parma, Italy.

ROME, May 5.—Owing to a rise in the price of bread at Parma, a riot occurred in that city. The women formed in procession and marched to the town hall, where they demanded from the officials that the latter secure a reduction in the price. Before the crowd could be dispersed it was found necessary to place a number of persons under arrest.

Big Strike of Iron Ore.

ASHLAND, Wis., May 5.—A special to The Daily Press from Ironwood states that a new vein has been struck at the Anvil mine and has provoked quite a sensation in mining circles. The ore is high grade and the vein is 100 feet in width. It is undoubtedly the biggest strike of the season.

Only One of the Crew Saved.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 5.—The Swedish bark Secla was wrecked near Renews, and will prove a total loss. Only one of the crew was saved, a sailor named Kilasson. The vessel is probably from Tonsberg, April 9, for Miramichi.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1891.

AN ILLINOIS STORY.

Some republicans die hard; they try to remain on earth after the trap has been sprung. The hardest kicker of the lot is the man who has been mayor of Jacksonville. His name is King, and he evidently thinks the name is a title. He insists that he is still mayor of Jacksonville. He evidently thinks he holds until a republican successor has been chosen.

It will be remembered that the democrats elected Thomas Knoles mayor of Jacksonville two weeks ago. At the same time there were elected seven republican and five democratic aldermen. This was owing to a bad division of the votes made by the democrats of the town. The aldermen there are elected on the minority representation plan. In two wards where the democrats polled a majority of votes they got only one alderman.

The mayor is required to file a bond for $5,000, the condition being an honest performance of his duties. Knoles filed his bond signed by two men who are easily worth more than $100,000. The old council would not approve this bond. King has gone to the seven republicans who are in the new council and persuaded them to hold off their approval. Now King says that he is mayor until Knoles' bond is approved. When a meeting of the council is called King will rush in and put a motion to adjourn. The seven republicans vote in the affirmative and then leave the council chamber. That breaks a quorum.

There is no question made about the sufficency of the bond furnished by the democratic mayor-elect. The republicans admit that it is as good as gold, but they will take no action on it. They will neither approve nor disapprove. The bond is in the keeping of a republican clerk, who is also holding over in the same high-handed fashion, and he has it locked away in a safe. King insists that he is mayor until the bond is approved, and then he takes good care to see that it is not approved.

The fellows who are working this scheme speak very plainly about what they want. They say that if Knoles will give them a guarantee to make one-half his appointments from republicans they will approve his bond at once and let him become mayor. If he will not give this guarantee they say that he never will be mayor.

We would have an exactly parallel case in our city if Mr. Kanan should go into the new council and prevail upon its members not to approve Mr. Chambers' bond until he should make a solemn promise to retain at least one-half the Kanan appointees. And then to carry out the parallel Mr. Kanan would have to insist upon acting as mayor. How would our people like something of that kind? It is exactly what the republicans are doing in Jacksonville.

And those Jacksonville republicans are keeping out the democratic clerk who was chosen at the last election. They will not approve his bond. They admit that the bond is all right, but they will not approve it until the mayor-elect comes down with a promise to give half the offices to republicans.

Now, remember in these cases there is no question about the election. The men have been declared elected, and so notified by a republican clerk. There is no question about the sufficiency of the bonds. King and the republicans in the council say they will not approve until certain promises are wrung from the democratic officers-elect. King says that he is mayor, and there are those who say that he has nerve enough to hold through the next two years. Every one of the seven republicans in the new council will follow him. That is republicanism for you in a polished and educated city of Illinois. It is impudence that would knock Bill Chandler dizzy.

We might remark that this King is also a fierce Force bill advocate. But this would probably be guessed by everyone who reads of the game he is playing in Jacksonville. It is hard to see why anyone should take the trouble to go into the South to find political outrage stories.

IT was boasted that everything at the high tariff banquet in New York last Wednesday night was American. The menu was called a bill of fare, and the various articles on the table were not acquainted with a custom house. Mr. Blaine was represented by proxy, and that was American too. Mr. McKinley was the honored guest at this banquet.

The cooking was American, and so were the cigars. The greatest drawback to the whole blowout was that it gave McKinley the dyspepsia. He has been a sufferer ever since he has got up from that board. The next time he eats an American dinner, made to order, he will have sense enough to try Blaine's proxy plan.

But it seems that it took a great deal of hustling to get American wares on the table. Here is what one man did:

Secretary Wilbur F. Wakeman made it his special business to see that everything was American made, and was hard put to make ready in time. Mr. Wakeman found it a melancholy fact that not only the caterers, but the pottery dealers, were so loaded up with european made dishes that it was impossible to provide for a dinner of 500 in New York City without ordering many things specially made for the occasion. He had to have 10,000 plates and dishes made in the Trenton potteries. These included semi-porcelain, translucent porcelain, and China, the idea being to have represented the principal pottery products of the country. He also had to have 1,000 wine glasses of pressed glass made in Ohio. Ohio leads the world in pressed glass, but in this case special orders had to be given to supply the demand. The cutlery was also specially made for the occasion. The New York restaurants and market could not supply the demand for strictly American-made goods, and a firm in New Britan, Conn., was called upon to supply 3,000 knives.

So it seems that special orders had to be given for nearly everything on the table. New York is a pretty big place but Wakeman couldn't find in the town enough American made dishes to set before 500 guests. When you think of the amount of money the American industries have so far cost the taxpayers you will not grow very enthusiastic about the state of affairs this banquet brought to light. Wakeman has as much trouble to get together this dinner service as if he had been ordering it from Robinson Crusoe's island.

And then to think that all that came of it was Maj. McKinley's dyspepsia! Why, a railroad lunch counter could do that much.

HERE is what an exchange has to say about the duty on lumber. We used to hear that it was to protect the farmer of the west. If you will look in a republican table of the protection given to farmers you will find that lumber is one of the products up near the head of the list:

The duty on lumber has not been asked for and lobbied for by the producers of lumber—that is to say, the men engaged in cutting down and sawing up trees, and who derive their profits solely from that source—nor has it added to their profits. The parties who have really lobbied and logrolled for the imposition and maintenance of the lumber duty are the owners of timber lands, and its effect has been to increase the price of "stumpage," the royalty which the producer of lumber must pay to the owner of timber land for the privlege of cutting down trees. A certain class of forestallers have made a business of getting possession of timber lands by all the various "land-grabbing" devices as soon as the progress of population promised to make them available. Constituting a compact and therefore powerful interest, they have been able to secure a duty on lumber, which, nominally imposed for the encouragement of the lumber producer, has really encouraged only the timber land forestaller, who, instead of being a producer at all, is merely a blackmailer of production.

IT now turns out that Old Hutch did not run away from his creditors, that he is not busted, that he is not crazy, and that he is worth $500,000 after all his debts are paid. He is going East for a vacation. He will be back in Chicago bye and bye, and then he will give the board of trade a few more jolts that will make it think it has got hold of an excited earthquake.

The men who a few days ago said he was broke are the ones who now admit that he has $500,000. This means that he has a great deal more. If his affairs can pick up that much in a few days where will they be in a month? There are two men in Chicago that can't be downed. They are Old Hutch and Frank Collier. They must be a little bit the greatest characters on earth. We would like to see them take Phoebe Couzins into partnership. There would be a triumvirate for you! if Miss Phoebe will excuse the word.

THE performances of the Billion congress have depleted the U. S. treasury. The next congress will be called upon to devise ways and means to meet an actual deficiency of several millions. The memory of the Billion congress will go with the farmers into the campaign of next year. The republican party will get another chance when the people have money to throw at the birds.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 5.—Wheat showed a tendency to react from the heavy break of yesterday at the opening this morning. Early English cables quoted wheat weak and lower, and on this and the very favorable crop reports the July option opened at $1 against $1.00½ at the close yesterday. There was good buying by shorts, however, and an advance to $1.01¾, reacted to $1.00¾ and then began an advance which carried it to $1.01¼. At 10:50 it was quiet at $1.01⅛. The advance was assisted by reports of hot, scorching winds in Hungary, on the strength of which foreign buyers at New York were taking all offerings within certain limits, and a Paris dispatch quoting higher prices. The receipts of corn were enormous, nearly 900 carloads. This was a weakening influence, coupled with a sentiment with a sentiment in favor of a reaction from yesterday's break, caused a ragged opening around which bids ranging from 59½c to 60⅛c for July were made against 60⅞c at the close yesterday. The price fluctuations were thereafter within these limits, and at 10:50 o'clock it was quoted at the top price. Provisions were dull and inclined to weakness. Pork opened 5c lower at $12.60 for July and sold off to $12.42½@12.45.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 5, 1:15 p. m.—No. 2 wheat, cash, 99c, sellers; May and June, 98⅝@99c; July, 97⅝@⅝c; Aug., 95½c. No. 2 corn, easy; cash, 66c; May, 62c; June, 60⅛c; July, 58⅝c bid. A Leap for Life May 25.

A distinguishing feature of the arenic department of the Forepaugh show this season is the appearance therein of the world-famed Hanlon-Volters at every presentation of the circus. These marvelous aerialists will present their wonder-working and death-defying aerial act known as the "Leap for Life." For this performance the entire width of the three arenas is required. Two trapeze bars are suspended from the dome of the canvas, one at each of the outer limits of the arena, both 40 feet above the ground, and not less than 60 feet apart. The intrepid gymnasts ascend to these swaying trapeze bars, and each grasping a bar, after acquiring sufficient momentum, let go their frail supports, and throw themselves forward with a mighty bound, each aiming to catch the opposite swinging bars, which are swaying backward and forward. As they let go their hold they turn completely round and with a nice calculation of time and distance, which seems super-human, under the circumstances, they both catch the dangling bars, just as they appear leaving them, and it seems as if they were to fall headlong to the ground. The Adam Forepaugh shows are announced to exhibit here on Monday, May 25.

HAPPENINGS IN PIATT.

A Fire—Murderer Turned Over—Judge Huston Going.

JUDGE HUSTON heard and gave judgement on the delinquent tax list today and with this act closed his official career in Piatt county. He will remove to Chicago immediately. His successor will be elected at the regular judicial election in June. M. R. Davidson who came within a few votes of beating Huston last fall, is the democratic candidate. Although there are several republican aspirants, no convention to name a candidate against Davidson has been held or called.

GOING TO KENTUCKY.

Sheriff Woolington, Sheriff Barry, of Webster county, Ky., and William S. Blackwell, who was arrested at Pierson for a murder at Clay, Ky., left last evening for Dixon, the county seat of Webster county. Blackwell was quite willing to go back and face the music. Under the Kentucky laws, Sheriff Woolington is required to see that the prisoner is in jail at Dixon before he gets the $300 reward.

STRANGE ACCIDENT.

T. B. Williams, who resides in North Monticello, lost two valuable horses by a strange accident the other day. A farm hand, who had the team harrowing, turned the harrow on its side to get around the corner. The harrow turned over the wrong way, and the horses were jerked back upon the upturned teeth, mangling them so badly that they had to be killed.

FIRE.

The residence of Hon. J. A. Brown in the north part of town, caught fire this morning from an incubator in the cellar. The housekeeper was awakened by the smoke and found the family almost suffocated. The fire was confined to the cellar, an asbestos ceiling saving the rest of the house.

AN INFORMATION was filed in county court yesterday, charging H. D. Peters, editor of the Herald, with committing assault and battery on Superintendent F. E. Auten, mention of which was made some weeks ago. The editor pleaded guilty and was fined $3 and costs.

SECRETARY C. A. TATMAN of the fair association is able to be out again, after a long siege of rheumatism. The agricultural board has again enlarged the ground and is preparing for increased business.

THE FUNERAL of William Hunter, a former resident of the city, who died at Bloomington Monday, took place here this afternoon.

THE CITY COUNCIL and the new democratic mayor meet tonight for the first time.

BEWARE OF OPIATES.

The curse of this present day is undoubtedly the use of opiates. Every community has its opium eater. Most of these poor wrecks began by taking the drug to deaden pain. Before they knew it they were in the power of the insidious enemy and henceforth there was no escape. Many and many a poor victim owes his enthrallment to the opiate in the cough syrup that was given him in childhood to relieve his malady. It has even been claimed that it is impossible to make a cough medicine without using an opiate. Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure has solved this problem. It does not contain a particle of opium or other poison. For sale by all druggists, 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

The Fair Closing-Out Sale.

THE GREAT
SAMPLE SALE

We have just received a lot of Sample Shoes which have been used by the traveling salesmen for the Chicago wholesale house of L. L. Ferriss & Co These samples are shoes used by the traveling men in selling for this spring's trade. They are only slightly soiled in handling, and are in every respect equal to new shoes for wear. You have perhaps not thought that the shoe manufacturers use the very best leather for sample shoes. This is quite natural, because they desire to make the shoe the best possible in its class, because the shoe must pass muster before the critical eye of every dealer. Now these sample shoes have all been turned over to us for sale, and we dont want to make money on them. They will be sold in every case at less than jobbers' prices. Here is a benefit. Take advantage of it.

In our regular stock we have the most complete line we have ever had. We have $20,000 in job lots and broken lots from this spring's trade of our wholesale house in Chicago. We have unloaded it all in Decatur and propose to retail it below jobbing prices. It is the opportunity of a lifetime to get good shoes at such prices. A hint to the wise is sufficient. Come and investigate. That is all we ask. We can leave the buying to your judgment.

COUNTY BOARD ORGANIZED.

C H Garver, Chairman—W. A Holman, Overseer—Other Business

The county board had a special meeting yesterday afternoon in the circuit court room. Only 21 members were present. Supervisors Bell and McClure were the absentees.

After County Clerk Hardy, in his dignified and courtly way had called the board to order, much as he might call to order the house of lords, and some preliminaries had been disposed of, Supervisor Johnson suggested Supervisor Parker, of Maroa, for temporary chairman. The board agreed to that. The chair then appointed Supervisors Johnson, Barber, and Roberts a credential committee to see who was elected. After a recess of about 20 minutes they reported this

LIST OF MEMBERS.

Decatur—Conrad Ammann, Geo. F. Bell, Hiram Johnson, H. F. May, R. A. Newell, J. H. Parker, Thomas Quinn and Hue Singleton.
Austin—Andrew Hawkyard
Blue Mound—W P. Sleeter
Oakley—W. C. Burley.
Macon—O. H. Draper.
Whitmore—C. H. Garver.
Friends Creek—Samuel Gerber
Mt. Zion—W. P. Hunter.
Wheatland—John H. Miller.
Long Creek—James Muldoon.
Pleasant View—J. W. K. McClure
Maroa—J. H. Parker.
Illini—E. J. Roberts.
Harristown—W. L. Whitley
Milam—Archie Dickson.

Politically the board stands 13 republicans; 10 democrats.

For permanent chairman for the year Supervisor Tom Quinn nominated C H. Garver of Whitmore township No one else was nominated, and Mr. Garver was elected by acclamation. He made a brief inaugural address, stating that he would ever remember with gratitude this kindness and this mark of confidence.

Supervisor May resigned his position as overseer of the poor, and W. A. Holman, who has been doing the work, was elected by acclamation.

Ex-Supervisor James Freeman presented his resignation as member of the court hourse committee. Supervisor Johnson was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Supervisor Parker, of Maroa, stated that one of the Maroa grand jurymen, Mr. Hoff, named for the June term could not serve, and Henry Jump was suggested to take Mr Hoff's place. The chairman decided that the change could not be legally made by the board. Clerk Hardy gave it as his opinion that the circuit judge only could excuse M. Hoff at this stage of the proceedings Supervisor Parker withdrew his suggestion for a change.

Supervisor May, chairman of the new court house committee, stated that the plans and specifications in detail will be ready for inspection by May 11th, when the committee will meet and prepare a report for presentation to the board at its regular meeting in June, when in all probability the committee will be read to advertise for bids.

Supervisor Roberts suggested that the board do away with the regular June meeting and meet only in July, as required by law, and on his motion a committee of three was appointed on rules and order of business. Committee—Supervisors Roberts, May and Barber.

The committee reported the rules practically the same as last year and the board then adjourned until the second Tuesday in June.

Chairman Garver will announce the standing committees in vacation

Bement People Back

Ten days ago a crowd of Bement people, including 12 families and about 35 souls, started on an excursion to Alabama and other points in the south. They returned yesterday afternoon, coming to Decatur on the P , D. & E , leaving for home on the Wabash at 3 15 p. m. It was a very happy, though somewhat sunburned company. They went to Evansville, and there took the fine steamer William F. Nesbitt. On that they went to the head of navigation on the Tennessee river, stopping at Waterloo and visiting the battlefield of Shiloh. Half a day was spent on the battlefield, and a great many relics were secured.

Among those in the party were the families of Lewis Alvord, Dr. Kimmel, S. A Lodge, Curtis Camp, Pitman Roe and N Hinkle. Mrs. Dr. Caldwell and Mrs. W L. Rider of Monticello, went on the excursion also.

Sons of Veteran's Encampment.

The seventh annual encampment of the Illinois division Sons of Veterans, will begin the 22d of July and last till the 29th. The place for holding the encampment has not yet been decided, but Oakland park seems to be considered most favorably. About 8,000 Sons from all over the state will be here, and Decatur will have a very military aspect during the week. Capt. Cassell, of the local camp, is appointing committees to get things in shape. The encampment will require the use of 350 tents, which are obtained from the state. A number of prize drills will be a feature of the week, and Decatur and Springfield will probably come together in the contests.

ENTERTAINED BY "TOURISTS."

An Unusually Interesting Session of the Woman's Club.

The regular monthly meeting of the woman's club was held last evening in the club rooms. An unusually large audience was present. including many gentlemen and several strangers visiting in the city.

The routine of business was gone through with, including an informal ballot for officers for the coming year, cast to enable the electors to obtain the expression of the club, before making nominations. An invitation was extended to those present to attend the entertainment to be given at the Industrial Home, to show the public the working of the school.

After the business was disposed of, the evening class, better known as the "Tourists," entertained the club.

The program given below was beautifully carried out, the young ladies doing themselves great credit. Little Madge Hayes captivated the audience, receiving a hearty encore.

The Rev. E. B. Cake quite charmed his hearers with a most able paper on the "Optimist's Ideal." His views are broad and comprehensive. He certainly elevates woman to the highest eminence, and clothes his ideal in garments glittering with the jewels of culture, intellect, purity, principle and wealth.

Woman, he maintained, will one day have a position beside man's, but she must first earn it, and then she will hold it by the title of merit She will have hard work, she must economize, she must persevere, and will one day be rewarded by seeing her brain work and her bank account rank with man's in all particulars. The speaker has as exalted opinion of the possibilities of the coming woman. He closed by advising the girls not to give themselves away in marriage, but to stand for their own place, and win it by their own efforts.

The speaker was listened to with marked attention and appreciation.

This program was given:

Duet—"The Lily and The Rose," Misses Bachman and Freeman.

Reading—Miss Brooks.

Song with Banjo accompaniment—Madge Hays.

Recitation—"Mother and Poet," Miss Irwin.

Solo—"The Dreamland Ferry," Miss Pritchett.

Address—Rev. E. B. Cake

Selections by a string band composed of Messrs, Templeton, Sedgwick and Abel closed the evening. They were heartily applauded and two encores were insisted upon.

Nine Bums Captured.

Four days ago a gang of seedy, disreputable looking tramps established a camp in the Priest pasture, back of Greenwood cemetery. They had a fire there constantly, and some one of them was always busy cooking something over it. Stale beer was always plentiful around the camp, and the tramps seemed to be having an easier time than if they were all the Prince of Wales. The people living near were not enjoying thd proceedings as much. Besides missing chickens, fuel and other things from their premises, they had with them all day and all night the thought that the tramps might get so bold as to take the whole neighborhood. Officers Leech, Bailey, Lawrence, Williamson and Kirkbride made a raid on the camps yesterday and captured everybody in sight, though some of the toughs made resistance. The outfit was locked up in jail. It is about as ugly and dangerous a looking crowd as has ever gone behind the bars there, and the state would be much better off if all could be put to breaking stone for the next 20 years.

Lindon Dramatic Company.

The new and romantic drama, "The Son of Monte Cristo," will be presented for the first time in Decatur during the engagement of the above company at the Grand Opera House next week. The St. Louis Evening Star says.

Playwrights have found in the elder Dumas' great story, "The Count of Monte Cristo," an ever-yielding source of inspiration. Ever since this most remarkable of modern French writers penned the vicissitudes of Edmund Dantes it has been the aim to fitly portray the character amid flesh and blood surroundings. The latest competitors for this fame is Frank Lindon, who yesterday afternoon, at Havlin's, for the first time produced the "Son of Monte Cristo." The count's son Albert is the hero, and his mission is to revenge his father upon the son of the count's old enemy, Danglars. Every romantic locality made known to the readers of the "Count of Monte Cristo" is again visited in the pursuit of vengeance, and the last scene, in which Albert runs down his human quarry is made just as thrilling as possible.

Tried Brigandage.

A tough looking tramp, whose mind has evidently been well filled with the Italian stories that have been so plentiful in the papers lately, thought he would try a little of the brigand business yesterday afternoon. He had the necessary qualifications, so far as looks went, for the old slouch hat, heavy black mustache, sunburned skin, and dark vicious eyes gave him the appearance of the worst kind of a highwaymen. He met a peaceable looking old gentleman from Clinton near the furniture factory. "Here," said the tramp, "I'm hungry; I've had nothing to eat since Sunday; you shell out what money you've got in that big pocket of yours, or I'll choke it out of you right here." With that he made a movement towards the old man as if he would carry out his threat. The old gentleman was not to be scared, but put his hand on his hip pocket and told the would be Claud Duval to scoot or be shot. He scooted.

Friendless and Penniless.

Mrs. Cheseman, who was in Decatur Monday night looking for her husband who had deserted her in the depot at Peoria, taking their little 18 months babe with him, boarded the T. H. & P. train yesterday afternoon with the intention of going to Terre Haute to look for her husband. She had but 65 cents and Conductor Helmer informed her that would take her as far as Lovington and and then she would have to get off. She was put off at that place and her distress seemed so genuine that a subscription was started, $3 was soon raised, and a ticket bought to Terre Haute. She will remain in Lovington over night, leaving on the accommodation this morning. She has a sister and plenty of friends in Terre Haute who will care for her.

New W. R. C. Officers.

The Woman's Relief corps had a meeting yesterday afternoon and elected Mrs. Sarah Pringle president, to succeed Mrs. M. A. Bradley, who resigned soon after she was elected department president. Mrs. Pringle was a vice president, and the election leaves vacant the office she held.

Mrs. Bradley, president of the department of Illinois, yesterday appointed Mrs. Effie R. Kennedy, of Decatur, department secretary. She was formally installed yesterday afternoon.

THE OLD ST. NICHOLAS.

It is Being Torn Down—Something About Its Early Days.

The work of tearing down the old St. Nicholas began yesterday. Already the roof is off the south ell, and 13 or 14 rooms have been demolished. The work will be pushed right ahead now as fast as it can be.

The house has quite a history. It is one of the oldest building in the city, and in its early years saw a great many changes of management. The oldest part of the building is that in the corner, extending from the west side of the bar room around to the south side of the office. What a procession of people and events those old walls have witnessed! The history of of a city like Decatur may not be exciting or thrilling in any of its particulars. but it certainly is extremely interesting, and the old house has seen as much of that as any other building in town.

The house was erected in 1854. John Harrell built it, and as the landlord welcomed the first guests. He named it the Harrell house. By 1855 the name had been changed to the Cassell house, when Berry H. Cassell was the head of a firm of proprietors. The full firm name was Cassell, Stroh & Henderson. The name changed to the Oglesby house along in 1857, when Warner Oglesby became "mine host." After that the hotel was known as the America house, the Tremont house. the Adams house, the Cloudas house, and the Varney house, each change of name marking a change of proprietors, till the Laux brothers took possession in September, 1865. The firm included Nicholas, Peter and Charles Laux and they give the hotel its present name. In 1879 Charles Laux bought out his brothers, and has since then been alone in the management of the house.

When the Laux brothers took the house in 1865 it had 38 rooms. The billiard room and part above it was added in 1870. In 1880 the new dining room was built. and in 1885 the office was remodeled.

A REALLY GREAT SHOW.

In a Long Journey Sells Bros. Come Clear to the Front.

"Brag is a good dog, but Holdfast is a better." The Sells Brothers, whose millionaire unity of big shows is to exhibit at Decatur on Friday, May 8, having held fast to their business with a most commendable tenacity for nearly twenty years, are well entitled to do some bragging over the results obtained, and, in fact, the claims they set forth are amply sustained by recorded facts. This year they give the biggest feast of animate wonders and amazing acts ever spread before an eager throng, and of the thousands who will patronize them here it is safe to assume that not one will go away disappointed or dissatisfied.

Four Saloons.

Niantic voted for license at the last election and is already well supplied with saloons. One opened yesterday and three more will open tomorrow. The proprietors are Heher & Walsh, John Blickle, James Danley and Thomas Doran. John Clark has opened a pool hall. The saloons each pay a license of $600 a year.
